

Our current range of papers is deliberately limited to a fairly small number that we know and like. We are happy to include others if there is sufficient demand. If your favourite paper is not here, let us know.

Paper Type	Weight g/m <sup>2</sup>	Order Code	Max Size	Comments
Harman Gloss FB AI	320	HGFB	17"x25"	Heavy fibre-base paper with baryta layer for superb image sharpness. Looks and feels like a traditional air-died darkroom gloss paper. Perfect for B&W prints, giving bright whites and deep blacks with a Dmax of 2,4. Our favourite paper, especially for B&W.
Iford Galerie Smooth Gloss	290	IGSG	17"x36"	Has the look and feel of a traditional heavyweight gloss photo paper. Gives the wide colour gamut associated with gloss paper, with minimal gloss differential.
Iford Galerie Smooth Pearl	290	IGSP	17"x36"	Has the look and feel of a traditional heavyweight pearl photo paper. Suitable for all types of image and very popular for portraiture and social photography.
Hahnemühle Photo Rag 308	308	HPR308	A2	One of the most popular fine art papers - something of a de facto standard. 100% cotton with a lightly textured surface.
Museo Portfolio Rag	300	MPR300	17"x22"	100% cotton Fine Art paper with a smoother surface that does not detract from image detail. Wide colour gamut and full archival properties.

Prices given below are for single prints from one image. If you require multiple copies, discounts apply. Please contact us for details.

A4 prints and proofs are shipped in heavyweight board-backed envelopes. Larger sizes are shipped in cardboard tubes - 3" diameter for A3/A3+ and 4" diameter for A2 or larger.
